

Top Carter Staffer Calls For Legalization Of Heroin

Oct. 22 (NSIPS) — Dr. Peter Bourne, deputy national chairman of the Carter campaign stated today that he favored the legalization of heroin in the U.S. and the use of heroin to treat narcotics addicts.

"Legalizing heroin may increase the number of addicts, but it would reduce the cost of addiction," Bourne said in an interview made available to NSIPS. Dr. Bourne referred to numerous studies he has done under the auspices of the Drug Abuse Council, which is funded predominately by the Ford Foundation. He also referred to the Brookings Institution as having done "excellent work in the field" of drug abuse.

In another interview, Dr. Bourne said that "he felt the time had come to 're-examine the question of whether we ought to decriminalize heroin and set up treatment centers to dispense heroin' legally," according to a front page article "Should Heroin Be Legal" in the National Observer Oct. 23.

Who Is Peter Bourne?

Just prior to his second grab at the governorship in 1970, Carter hooked up with psychiatrist Peter Bourne, who was then running a brainwash center in Atlanta. Bourne quickly became the empty shell's "closest friend."

Scion of a British intelligence family, Bourne trained in psychiatry at the Walter Reed Army Research Institute, notorious as a brainwash center, before deploying to Vietnam in 1966 to profile U.S. Special Forces in combat. Returning to the United States a year later, Bourne was assigned to the State Department's counterinsurgency arm, the Agency for International Development (AID). Simultaneously Bourne launched his domestic counterinsurgency career. While studying at Stanford University, he helped run the Haight-Ashbury Drug Clinic, one of the first brainwashing centers parading under the guise of a drug abuse program. Drawing on his psywar experience in Vietnam, Bourne set up the terrorist countergang, the Maoist Vietnam Veterans Against the War, and joined the board of directors of the Institute for Policy Studies southern outlet, the Institute for Southern Studies in Atlanta. There Bourne met and promptly befriended the unstable Carter.

Carter returned the favor as soon as he became governor. He appointed Bourne to head up Georgia's drug abuse program and also granted him the only permit in the state for methadone, the drug created by the Nazis to make people work faster with no pain. At the same time, Carter was reportedly receiving funds from Capricorn Records, a rock record company currently under investigation as the nexus of a major drug-running operation in Atlanta.

In 1972, while still working closely with Carter, Bourne was given the number two job at the White House's Special Action Office on Drug Abuse. From there he directed various terrorist-producing drug programs, including the infamous Lincoln Hospital Detox center in the Bronx, N.Y. where the cop-killing Black Liberation Army was hatched. One of Bourne's personal visits to Lincoln Detox occurred on the same day that a Detox brainwash doctor, Richard Taft, was found dead in a closet.

Bourne saw in Carter the perfect opportunity to create a Manchurian Candidate. According to Bourne's father — a former major in the British Army's Special Forces who currently heads the Yerkes Primate Research Center for the study of apes and baboons — his son "has always been interested in how to get a President elected from the sociological and behavioral experimental points of view. He's the person on Carter's staff who is running a really scientific presidential campaign."
