

Time's up for terrorists

Question Socialist Party leaders in Moro murder

The Italian Socialist Party, a leading component of the Socialist International led by former West German Chancellor Willy Brandt, is now under police investigation for its ties to some of the most notorious international terrorists: the Red Brigades gang which last year kidnapped and murdered former Italian Prime Minister Aldo Moro after holding him hostage for 55 days.

PSI General Secretary Bettino Craxi, a friend of Senator Edward Kennedy and recently endorsed by the New York Times to head Italy's new government, was questioned by the magistracy together with his deputy secretary, Claudio Signorile, on June 27. As events unraveled in succeeding days, the entire Socialist Party leadership has come under suspicion of strong terrorist collaboration and collusion. Leading Italian industrialists such as Gianni Agnelli of Fiat and top politicians Wtion is beginning to be answered by the recent developments in Italy. Leading members of the Italian Socialist Party are being brought before the Italian magistrates for interrogation, bringing to light who, in fact, benefits from terrorism. With the collaborative input of the U.S. Labor Party and European Labor Party, the Italian security forces have been able to determine with precision the origins of terrorism, how it was put together, and how the political networks of the the British-controlled Second International, the Israeli-Zionist intelligence networks and the Italian black nobility formed the command and control structure for running terrorism internationally.

Although there has been minimal press coverage throughout Europe and the United States concerning the dramatic developments in Italy, a major battle is taking shape over whether the results of the Italian crackdown will be applied to those countries where terrorism remains a scourge. The very existence of terrorism as a political weapon to be wielded against sovereign governments hinges not only on the outcome of the Italian investigations, but more fundamentally on whether the security organizations of France, West Germany, and Spain crackdown in a similar manner.

According to both French intelligence and former West German security officials, one of the continuing difficulties in clearing out the terrorist organization in the ruling Christian Democratic Party (DC) have also been implicated.

In short, the uppermost levels of Italian terrorist controllers—long identified as such by the European Labor Party (ELP) in two special dossiers—have now come under judicial scrutiny.

As the investigation continues, the Italian police will inevitably be led to the international centers of terrorist control and deployment. One of the leading magistrates in the case, Padua Judge Calogero, had said at a press conference two months ago that information then in his possession already indicated that Italian terrorism was but one phenomenon centered in the Middle East and North America, particularly Canada. Information made available to the magistrates by the European Labor Party—which has worked closely with them in the course of the antiterrorist campaign—has pinpointed that further, naming as responsible Israeli intelligence and British intelligence working in part through in-place networks located in North America.

The PSI-terrorist interface

The investigation into the Socialist Party leadership was first made public June 23, when the judges in charge of the Moro murder disclosed that PSI Deputy Secretary Signorile was known to have met with "Autonomist" leader Piperno. Piperno is head of that Autonomist movement identified by the police as the above-ground support organization of the Red Brigades and related terrorist cells. Signorile's meetings with Piperno—who is now in hiding from the police after being charged with helping to direct the Moro kidnapping—took facet

The significance of the crackdown on terrorism is the political protection that is afforded the terrorists by leading public officials. Last week, in West Germany, Social Democratic Party Chairman Willy Brandt, announced that the environmentalist movement, a known center of terrorist activity, is welcome to join the SPD. Brandt went further in his avowed proterrorist stance by stating that, like the student movement of the 1960's, today's environmentalists represent a necessary political force in society requiring a broader political voice.

Such declarations should come as no surprise as Brandt has been one of the leading spokesmen in the British-controlled wing of the Second International supporting terrorists and supporting the electoral efforts of PSI Central Committee member Bettino Craxi (now being interrogated) before Craxi became too hot to handle.

Basque terror

Across the European map, as a counter to the events in Italy, the clearest point of escalation of terrorism is Spain. The Basque terrorist organizations have been on the rampage there for over a month. One

French intelligence official reported to European correspondents for Executive Intelligence Review that the Basque terror represents the greatest threat to both Spain and France, since the French have been intimately involved in aiding the Spanish in their fight against the terrorists.

According to a Spanish journalist, the problem for Spain's security services is not who stands behind the terrorist deployments, but how to piece together the proof that the black nobility, the Second International, and the Israelis work together to foment terrorism. It is a generally well-known fact that the Spanish black nobility runs terrorism—the question remains how to effectively move on it.

Over the coming weeks, what track the Italian investigators take will determine to a great extent how effectively terrorism will be eliminated. If they continue along the lines of investigation already being pursued, then many leading political figures in Italy will be behind bars. The whole structure of the Italian terrorism apparatus will find itself under the threat of or actual investigation by the magistrates.

Then the Israeli intelligence service and many of Europe's leading black nobility families will be exposed for their terrorist operations, bringing the investigation to the top: the British monarchy which currently keeps its distance from the terrorists it in fact has created and controls.

—Paul Goldstein