

a big slaughter going on now for nine months. That is why I do not hesitate to use the word shame, because that is the only word to be used, and the only one adequate to describe our feelings toward this, what is going on in Bosnia-Herzegovina.

The old plan of Greater Serbia

The immediate cause is expansionist policies of the Belgrade regime. That plan of greater Serbia is 100 years old, approximately. This regime went back to history, and to that plan, because they could not produce a viable, modern, economic, national, cultural program. Going back to history in the Balkans always pays. And in blood.

Unfortunately, the expansionist plan was to be carried out without regard to human life. So as a consequence, as a direct consequence, we have people killed or driven out of their homes as the main goal of the war, not as a by-product. But the main goal is to have cleansed territories either by

Amelia Boynton Robinson addresses a rally in Washington, D.C. on Sept. 25, 1991, against the Serbian oppression of Croatia and other Balkan republics.

Schiller Institute broke the blackout on genocide

While all the world was keeping silent about the atrocities being committed by Greater Serbia against its neighbors, Amelia Boynton Robinson, a leader of the Schiller Institute, visited Croatia July 1-6, 1992, and pledged a worldwide effort to bring the truth to light and to put a stop to the genocide. Pictured above, Mrs. Robinson addresses a Croatian rally in Washington, D.C. on Sept. 25, 1992.

Mrs. Robinson is a veteran of the U.S. civil rights movement and a collaborator of Lyndon LaRouche and Helga Zepp-LaRouche. She visited Croatia as the guest of the Croatian group Bastion of Love—Mothers for Peace.

In a press conference in Zagreb, she sharply criticized the policy of the Bush administration, which she accused of having egged on the Serbian military against the other republics seeking independence from the communist dictatorship. Her interventions received widespread coverage in the Croatian press.