Britain's irregular warfare scenario

The British oligarchy is fostering irregular warfare throughout the world, with the aid of the Kissinger/Bush network within the U.S. establishment.

Sweeping across North Africa, and down its east coast, Britain is orchestrating religious, civil, and tribal wars that are intended to weaken or annihilate all nation-states, while preparing conditions for North-South, Christian-Muslim conflict.

From the Balkans into Turkey, the Middle East, and through Iran into the Indian subcontinent, and also into former Soviet Central Asia, the British are provoking religious and nationalist wars in what they have termed the "Arc of Crisis."

In the India-China-Japan theater, conflict among the dominant Asian regional powers, including nuclear conflict, is a top British objective.

1. Algeria: The British-orchestrated civil war may spread into the neighboring former French colonies of Morocco and Tunisia. The increasing likelihood of a mass flight of refugees to France and Europe generally will aid ongoing British efforts to depict North Africa and Islam as the new danger to Europe. The Clinton administration has been attempting to facilitate a dialogue between the government and Islamic opposition parties.

2. Egypt: Orchestrated Christian Coptic-Muslim strife in southern Egypt is being increasingly blamed on Sudan as part of a plan to spark an Egyptian-Sudanese war. See p. 25.

3. Sudan: The British-run civil war is drawing in neighboring Eritrea and Uganda. See p. 25.

4. Rwanda/Burundi: Ugandan President Yoweri Museveni's sponsorship of Tutsi tribal massacres of Hutus throughout the region, under the patronage of British Overseas Development Minister Lady Lynda Chalker, is building a greater Uganda.

5. Republic of South Africa: See p. 30.

6. Nigeria: Recent British coup attempts, typified by the Royal Institute of International Affairs failed effort to install Gen. Olusegun Obesanjo in power, are meant to force compliance with brutal International Monetary Fund (IMF) austerity measures. Such measures are meant to create civil strife and tribal war in the most populous and economically and militarily powerful black African country.

7. Liberia: Externally directed ongoing civil war, which has drawn in neighboring states, including Nigeria, remains a threat to the region.

8. Balkans: The British-sponsored Serbian war with Croatia and Bosnia is escalating, with major new battles being projected this spring. An escalated war threatens to draw in Albania and Turkey on the side of Bosnia, and Greece on the side of Serbia.

9. Turkey: See p. 23.

10. Caucasus: See p. 23.

11. Israel/Palestine: British/IMF sabotage of development plans threatens to overturn peace accords, provoking renewed Israeli-Palestinian conflict, as well as conflict between between the PLO and Hamas in Gaza. Conflict among Israelis, between those supporting and opposing the accords, cannot be excluded, including assassinations of Israeli political leaders.

12. Pakistan: British-run Shiite-Sunni and ethnic violence in the port city of Karachi is meant to aid fragmentation of the nation, while Pakistani-Indian conflict over Kashmir might spark a new war. See p. 28.

13. India: The British assassination of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, and later of her son Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi, decapitated the nation's leadership. Separatist strife in Kashmir, Punjab, Tamil Nadu, and elsewhere continues to be promoted and manipulated.

14. China: The Indian-based British agent Dalai Lama's calls for a Tibetan insurrection in China, while on a trip to Japan, have increased the potential for regional wars. The London-based International Institute of Strategic Studies continues to plot a Chinese civil war in the aftermath of Deng Xiaoping's coming death, in what is known as the "Gerald Segal plan." See p. 36.

15. Korea: The British attempt to sabotage Clinton administration efforts to build up North Korea's civilian nuclear industry as a means of defusing a contrived crisis over its claimed bomb-making program. Sabotage of such efforts could block Korean reunification, lead to a new Korean conflict, or even to North Korea getting the "Iraq treatment."

16. Japan: See p. 36.

17. Indonesia: British-Portuguese insurgency in predominately Catholic East Timor is meant to destabilize the archipelago, while conflict between Vietnam, Malaysia, the People's Republic of China, and Taiwan is being prepared over the disputed oil-rich Spratley Islands. Renewed Muslim-separatist insurgency and terrorism is planned for the Philippines.

18. Ibero-America: The British-dominated, Cuban-based São Paulo Forum is escalating continent-wide irregular warfare, with the aid of the U.S. State Department. See p. 31.
