Political Reality Is About To Strike

In an Aug. 12 column entitled “The Stunning Decline of Barack Obama: 10 Key Reasons the Obama Administration Is In Meltdown,” the Daily Telegraph’s Washington, D.C. correspondent Nile Gardiner correctly characterizes the current political nightmare President Obama is living through, “in a summer of discontent in the United States which has deeply unsettled the ruling liberal elites...” But Gardiner is “way off the mark,” in saying that the anti-establishment Tea Party movement is going to be the political winner in this situation, Lyndon LaRouche noted in an Aug. 16 rejoinder. The lead of LaRouche’s argument presents the reality:

“For the edification of the Telegraph’s staff and readers, the Tea Party factor was a significant participant in the Rosa Luxemburg-style ‘mass strike’ ferment against both the White House and Congress back in August 2009, but has suffered greatly from the citizens’ disgust with the Tea Party’s showing itself to be a tool of a U.S. Republican Party’s current fit of ‘Republican politics-as-usual’ amid the current rash of that Party’s preoccupation with inner-party primary-election campaigns. There is nothing in the Republican Party’s or Tea Party’s posturing which fits the impassioned concerns of the eighty-percentile of the citizenry which is increasingly enraged against the Democratic Party’s Congress, and only somewhat less enraged against the Republican Party.

“Crucial political realities, not costumed political stunts, is the dominant political force rampant within the body of the citizenry. That should surprise no one who cares to face lurid facts of the situation. As of the latter part of the past week, the global Anglo-American financier interest, as represented by the global pair of Wall Street and the networks of the Inter-Alpha Group, has edged into a new phase of the already ongoing, general, global financial-monetarist meltdown-process....

“The immediate situation now, during the remainder of August and into September, is the issue whether or not the present lurch into Weimar-1923-style hyper-inflationary spiralling will be continued, or a remedy in the form of a more or less global revival of a ‘Glass-Steagall,’ fixed-exchange-rate, FDR-style recovery will be chosen, in time, instead. Meanwhile, the rulers of Wall Street and Inter-Alpha monetarist interests are currently lurching toward an early arrival of a state of affairs comparable to the Venetian monetarists’ plunging Fourteenth-century Europe and the Lombard bankers into the notorious, medieval ‘New Dark Age.’ No doubt some population-controllers, such as those of the World Wildlife Fund, or the kindred likenesses of the late Bertrand Russell, such as the Cambridge Apostles’ offshoot, the ‘Russellite’ International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis (IIASA), will drool at the prospect of reducing the world’s population from its currently estimated level, to less than two billions, but their lustful pleasures will be short-lived, as the reality of such a process strikes, and that presently soon, unless a sharp change in direction from current Anglo-American monetarist and related policies are turned around, suddenly, and that soon.

“Either way, no triumphant ‘Tea Party,’ Alice’s or any other, is to be seen on the political horizon for the near future at this time. An entirely different kind of politics, is currently on the agenda of real events....”
