
Editorial

Impeach Obama Now!

When the House Judiciary Committee in 1974 passed three bills of impeachment against Richard Nixon, it concluded each with the following solemn statement: “In all of this, Richard M. Nixon has acted in a manner contrary to his trust as President and subversive of constitutional government, to the great prejudice of the cause of law and justice and to the manifest injury of the people of the United States.”

Nixon, of course, was rightly accused of seeking to impose a dictatorship upon the United States, a danger even his Republican colleagues could not ignore. When the Republicans began to join in the impeachment, Nixon saw the handwriting on the wall and resigned.

How much more dangerous to the Republic, are the actions of a so-called President, Barack Obama, who is leading the nation to the very brink of thermonuclear war! Barack Obama is not only guilty of the same anti-constitutional actions as Nixon. The consequences of tolerating those actions are a threat to the very existence of the United States, and the planet as well.

You want to wait until he commits the crime? If so, you are insane, and you’ll take the world down with you.

Barack Obama has already met the standard for impeachment, several times over. He has shown utter contempt for the U.S. Constitution, on matters ranging from political appointments, to the mandated enforcement of the laws, to the power to make war. On top of that, he has shown the clear intent to commit genocide against the American population (and others), through his economic policies.

No less an authority than Alexander Hamilton, who was almost singlehandedly responsible for mobilizing support for the Constitution by the production of the Federalist Papers, provides the condemnation of Obama. In Federalist No. 65, he wrote of impeachment:

“The subjects of its jurisdiction are those offenses which proceed from the misconduct of public men, or, in other words, from the abuse or violation of some public trust.”

And in an essay published in the American Daily Advertiser in 1794, he wrote: “If it should be asked, What is the most sacred duty and greatest source of our security in a Republic? The answer would be, An inviolable respect for the Constitution and Laws—the first growing out of the last. . . . A sacred respect for the constitutional law is the vital principle, the sustaining energy of a free government.”

Barack Obama, demonstrably, simply a stooge of Wall Street and London, has, to the contrary, pursued the course of subordinating the laws to his will. Examples are too numerous to cite—with the latest atrocity being his violation of anti-drug money-laundering laws. But even that vicious act, which will lead to untold menticide and destruction of the nation, pales beside the danger his remaining in office represents: the provocation of thermonuclear war.

Congress has a duty to act!

On Feb. 17, Lyndon LaRouche put down the challenge. Get 10 or 12 members of Congress to commit themselves now, this week, to impeachment. Get the ball rolling now! Put on the spot all those, Democrats and Republicans alike, who know that Obama is a threat to the Constitution and very existence of the United States, but who have refused to act in defense of their constituents and the nation.

We need impeachment now, not to punish Obama, but to protect our future. Do it now!