

Bankers Poullain and Klasen, loyal Rockefeller associates, are undertaking standby operations because Rockefeller's terror is that the German economy, starved for credit and dependent on exports to countries which can no longer buy them, could find the "economic miracle" giving way beneath it. Already 65,000 auto workers have been slated for layoffs, and the rate of bankruptcies in Germany's key machine tool sector has jumped by one-half over last year's.

A chain-reaction collapse in West Germany would cut down masses of credit internationally, sparing not even Rockefeller.

Nelson Rockefeller Visits the Indians

EVERETT, WASHINGTON, June 30 (IPS) — Nelson Rockefeller's grin flashed June 19 on the Tulalip Indian Reservation here. At a press conference held jointly with Washington Governor Dan Evans and Ludlow Kramer, Rockefeller was met by IPS reporters who deviated from the meekness of the rest of the press. Rocky even called off the barking of his newshounds: "No, let her speak. This is the straight Marxist line."

However, Rockefeller was sufficiently shaken to contradict himself within the space of a few minutes: in response to an IPS presentation on Italy's desperate straits and the immediate necessity of a moratorium on her debts, Rockefeller corrected the debt figures ("Only $10 billion, not $15 billion") and then declared, "I'm not really much concerned with Italy. I'm sure they'll work out some kind of solution." Then, when asked by others how he spent his time these days, said, "I'm basically working on the Commission for Critical Choices. I'm concerned about the critical situations in the world."

Ludlow Kramer has already publicly served the Rockefellers by administering the People in Need program in San Francisco, a spin-off of the CIA's Symbionese Liberation adventure, which functioned as an exercise in Army food control. Governor Evans' Alternatives for Washington, publicized as a radical grass-roots program, is merely Critical Choices scaled to state-size proportions of Zero Growth austerity; Rockefeller confirmed this by saying "They (his Commission and Evans' Alternatives) are exactly the same thing."
