

Democratic Convention Controlled Both Inside and Outside By IPS-IACP

When the Democratic National Convention opens in New York on the night of July 12, every critical feature of the IPS-International Association of Chiefs of Police riot-terrorist operation against the 1968, and 1972 conventions will be in place. Should any pro-constitutional delegates attempt to block the convention's nomination of the Wall Street zombie Jimmy Carter or the adoption of the openly fascist Party Platform, every disruptive contingency is primed for activation.

Rocky Pomerance, past IACP president, Miami Beach Police Chief, and controller of both 1972 conventions revealed in an interview this week that the failure to trigger any significant mayhem over the July 4th weekend would sharply restrict the terrorist options for the Democratic convention. (The IACP is a top Rockefeller policy institute specializing in police control methods and terrorist coordination.)

According to Pomerance he has been hired by both the Democrats and the Republicans in 1976 as their top level "security advisor." Noted for having met and planned with riot leaders for months leading up to the 1972 Miami conventions, Pomerance will direct both police and rioters again this year.

Ralph Lewis, a top IPS law enforcement academic and terrorist planner, described several terrorist options this week: "They develop as scenarios within scenarios. Both the police and the rioters are completely profiled beforehand, and the dozens of alternate scenarios are mapped out weeks before the final staging." From the side of the police, a special hand-picked force of 1500 New York City Police are assigned to the convention. Funded by $2.6 million LEAA grant, these police have been through a week long Transactional Analysis sensitivity training program to prepare them to carry out their "orders."

The Observers ...

Outside the convention hall there will be two additional IPS-controlled "observers" and "demonstrators." Wallace Warfield, director of the Justice Department's Community Relations Service (CRS), said this week that all the demonstrators logistical support for housing, meeting rooms, "legal observers," and so forth have been centralized through the National Council of Church's Commission on Justice, Liberation, and Human Fulfillment. The NCC, a Rockefeller-created CIA operation, takes its orders from CRS whose director will be based in the NYPD's "Convention War room" inside Madison Square Garden. These CRS-NCC "observers" will control the pace of street demonstrations by positioning themselves between the police and the "protesters."

According to Pomerance New York has perhaps the best trained "observer" corps. After creating a similar operation in Miami, Pomerance has traveled around the country organizing such "riot control" corps in other cities — one of them being Kansas City, site of this year's Republican convention.

... The Demonstrators

Although the "demonstrators" will march under a number of banners, they will follow an IPS script first hammered out in 1968 and 1972. The largest riot contingent will be the IPS-run, YIPPIE-organized "United Action Front (UAF)- Counter Convention '76" group. Such agent infested groups as the Socialist Workers Party, the Communist Party USA, the American Indian Movement, the National Lawyers Guild and other IPS creations will supply speakers for the rally.

YIPPIE frontman Dana Beal, reports that the thrust of the UAF will be to push for the Watergating convictions of FBI agents and other government officials who have attempted to investigate IPS-terrorist networks. Dave Dellinger, IPS operative and member of the "Chicago 7 Conspiracy," that disrupted the 1968 Democratic Convention, stands behind the "Counter Convention '76." The scheduled rally July 12 by striking NYC Hospital Workers of Local 1199 will be used to cover for Progressive Labor thugs, who succeeded in getting scores of 1199 members arrested with their violent picket line clashes in a 1973 strike.

In addition, there are dozens of other groups scheduled to protest from the Right-to-Lifers to the various Gay and Prostitute's Rights groups. Police "planners" have issued permits for six separate demonstrations on July 12 in the evening hoping to attract enough people to be packed into the streets that surround the Garden.

Controlled Environment Inside

Rounding out the controlled environment inside the convention hall, all IPS-linked delegates, including IPS founder Marcus Raskin, have formed an operation called "Democracy '76." This contingent is supposed to control debate and challenges to the proposed platform, thereby hoping to disrupt any honest opposition to the otherwise programmed convention. Just as the planned demonstrations outside will be carried out by IPS retreats from 1968 and 1972, the Democracy '76 inside job is patterned on the earlier "insurgencies" against pro-constitutional Democratic party regulars.

Cliff Cassidy, Chairman of the Democratic Party's Advisory Committee on Security, said this week when asked whether things would be run the same this time around as in 1972, "No this time things will be much more sophisticated. We're all veterans now."

Exclusive Interview with Winslow Peck

"CounterSpy Cuts Off Tip To Save Tail"

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 10 (NSIPS) — The July 8 issue of the Washington Post carried a report that the Institute for Policy Studies "Counter Spy-Fifth Estate" groupuscle had, amoeba-like, gone through a process of a split, with four of seven "Counter Spy" editorial board members leaving and charging the remaining members with being "police agents, sexists, and Liberals," according to Harvey Kahn, a member of the new "anti-Counterspy" groupuscle.

But an interview with key Counter Spy-Institute for Policy Studies agent Winslow Peck, reproduced in part below, indicates that the "split" is a classic Anglo-American intelligence "A"/"anti-A" fission, whose purpose was to enable Counter Spy to expand its operations, and significantly, protect the expanded operation from exposure in pending U.S. Labor Party court action charging conspiracy on the part of Counter Spy and related IPS terrorist groups to deny the Labor Party its civil rights.

Winslow Peck: Only one person left is with any hard feelings (from the split), and he was someone who we have had trouble with right from the first day he joined Counter Spy. Everyone else is merely putting full time into other projects. In fact, we are now going through a planned expansion. We will be going to a bi-monthly publication schedule and are expanding our staff to include a number of people with considerable professional experience in the magazine field who also share our political views. I can't give you the names of these people because we are still in sensitive negotiations ...

Our major areas of expanded coverage will be international. As a matter of fact, the most important situation is one I know a great deal about — the international role that the West German government is playing is pushing state terrorism. I just got back from there and, let me tell you, the justice system there is still using laws that were created by the Nazis.

I went to Germany to testify on behalf of the Baader-Meinhof gang members. The court room where the trial is taking place was specially built for this event. There is a machine gun turret inside the courtroom. Guards walk around in Nazi-type uniforms. I and others from Counter Spy were not allowed to testify. Do you know the reasons for that? The judge said, 1) that we were members of the Baader-Meinhof; 2) he said that because we are anti-imperialist we are not qualified to testify; and 3) he said — and get this — that there is no defense for the Baader-Meinhof members. Their actions speak for themselves and the defense cannot possibly add anything to those actions...

The Baader-Meinhof trial is the most important political event going on in Europe today. Its effects are absolutely international. I was in fact kicked out of England because the government there was so afraid that if I got to speak to my press contacts there about what was going on in West Germany, the story would break all over the place and people would begin to understand that the actions of the Irish Republican Army are valid and justified.

"The story of state terrorism by West Germany will be a big feature in the next issue of Counter Spy. The left in the U.S. has been blind for too long about events in Europe and we will be concentrating regular attention on the European situation. Especially with the Baader-Meinhof trial. We now have correspondents in every major European capital ...

"The other two areas of our international concentration for now will be Southern Africa and the Caribbean. In a future issue we will be publishing the names of the key black CIA agents operating in Southern Africa. There is also a great deal going on all over the Caribbean. One of our areas of concentration there will be Puerto Rican independence. We do have correspondents throughout southern Africa and all over the Caribbean. In the near future we intend to expand into Asia and the Middle East ...

The pamphlet on the U.S. Labor Party will be coming out soon, but not under the Counter Spy cover. We had a number of disagreements over the analysis of key points in the investigation into the Labor Party. Harvey Kahn will be publishing it under his own sponsorship — he is running his own research project on the right wing. The facts in the pamphlet will be right and it will serve a valuable purpose for left-wing groups. But Counter Spy is not getting directly involved in that.
