12 Congress Faces New Turn: On the Subject of Strategic Bankruptcy

By Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr. "In the financial world, it is as if someone had suddenly turned on the light in the kitchen, and floods of hedge-fund cockroaches are swarming in all directions. The existing world financial system can do nothing to stop this panic! It can only rage, scream, and smash things, all of which would only make everything worse than the moment before." But there is a solution, if a calm voice prevails that says, "It's only money!"
