

British Target Obama in Drug-Legalization Bash

The International Harm Reduction Association (IHRA) plans to hold its 20th Annual Conference in Thailand from April 20-23. Harm reduction is the newspeak term used by the British Empire and its primary hitman George Soros, for legalization of drugs. While the IHRA is planning to celebrate what they consider a consolidation of power over Thailand, the international scope of the conference is exposed by the title of the keynote speech, given by Ethan Nadelmann, head of Soros's Drug Policy Alliance: "Barack Obama on Drugs: Don't Give Up on the U.S.A." Obama's refusal, thus far, to capitulate to the Soros-controlled drug lobby, has infuriated the Soros crowd, which is intent on breaking his resistance.

Founded in the U.K. in 1990, the IHRA works closely with the Soros apparatus, which is providing dozens of the more than 500 speakers for this massive event. The IHRA displays its behavioral fascist roots in the titles to some of the panels, among them:

"Harm Reduction and Pleasure Maximization, presented by the International Network of People Who Use Drugs (this is the organization that was given a seat by the British delegation to the recent Vienna UN drug conference, and was allowed to speak there).

"Cruel and Inhuman Treatment: Suffering Drug Withdrawal and Rights Violations in Detention.

"Building Networks of Drug Users.

"Chaos and Control—Pharmacotherapy in Victoria, Australia.

"Compulsory Drug Dependence Treatment Centers—Costs, Rights and Evidence. This targets "cold turkey" policies in Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, and Malaysia, as an attack on human rights, by the Open Society Institute, run by George Soros.

"Peer Education and Safer Injecting Practices in Street-Based Sex Workers.

"Towards a Rights-Based Approach—Young People, Drugs, and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (presented by Youth RISE, a "youth-led harm reduction network" to overcome "barriers to services, such as parental consent").
