From the Managing Editor

Hyperinflation? Are you sure? After all, you might say, “Where are the wheelbarrows?” Admittedly, this doesn’t look like Weimar 1923, at least not yet. Even so, now, the most conservative financial gurus are beginning to whisper—or even shout—the dreaded “H”-word. As Helga Zepp-LaRouche writes in this week’s cover story, “some representatives of the financial world are getting the jitters.” Even the arch-reactionary mouthpiece of the gnomes of Zurich, the Neue Zürcher Zeitung, last week uttered the hitherto taboo word “hyperinflation,” in response to the flooding of the markets by the Fed and ECB, and attributed the run-up in stock prices to “monetary policy on steroids.” The graphic on our cover tells the story.

The madness of the imperial financial wizards is matched by their evil twins among the anti-human Greens, led by HRH Prince Philip and his World Wildlife Fund, whose murderous antics in Australia are exposed in Economics: “Criminal Negligence, Green Ideology Caused Australia’s Flood Crisis.” Robert Barwick shows that the recent devastating floods there are the intended result of Philip’s genocidal program of promoting population-reduction and anti-science lunacy.

On the other side of the cognitive divide, our Science section digs deeper into the question of the strategic defense of Earth, in the wake of the Feb. 15 wake-up call from the Solar System. In “Asteroid Impact Over Russia: SDE Proposal Grips the World,” Ben Deniston of the LaRouche science team updates his report from last week, citing Russian Minister Dmitri Rogozin’s call for a U.S.-Russia effort for planetary defense against asteroids and other potentially deadly space threats.

Lyndon LaRouche’s Feature, “Who Really Owns You? It Is Time for You To Think, Really,” begins with the immediate threat of financial Armageddon, brought on by Bernanke’s “quantitative easing,” contrasted with the need for rapid increases in applied energy-flux densities to meet the challenges that the galaxy has put before us.

A brief review of top World News includes: “Can SDE Cooperation Trump London’s War Drive?”; “India’s Pro-Obama Government May Be on Its Last Legs”; “Pope’s Abdication: A Sign of the Times”; and “Glass-Steagall Has Broad Support in U.S.”
