

‘Your Effort Can Make a Difference’

Congressman Walter Jones, Jr., Republican, Third District of North Carolina, gave this video presentation to the Schiller Institute/EIR conference.

I want to say hello first, and welcome you to the Executive Intelligence Review in Sterling, Va., today, and sorry I can't be with you, but I am back home in North Carolina.

I want to bring up two or three issues that I hope that will be of interest to you—to let you know that I am working with the LaRouche people on a couple of issues that I think are very important. One is—and I would like to read a paragraph to you from the letter that I wrote to the chairman and ranking member of the House Permanent Committee on Intelligence, and this is my second paragraph in the letter to both Mr. Rogers and also Mr. Ruppertsberger.

“I urge you, as chairman and ranking member, to recommend a declassification of the 28 pages of the Congressional Joint Inquiry Report describing what role the Saudi Arabian government had in the terrorist attack of 9-11. As you know, former Sen. Bob Graham has conducted extensive research into this issue, and has been nationally recognized and interviewed for his beliefs that these 28 pages should be declassified.”

I’m asking you today, as you’re attending this conference, to think about reaching out to other Members of Congress, and ask them to join me, in asking for this declassification. The American people will not survive unless they have sunlight and freedom, as to the knowledge of what is happening in Washington. So, remember, you’re very important to this cause.

Another issue that I would like to talk about, is Glass-Steagall. With all the nations around the world who are in economic chaos, and banks failing left and right, why should America not reinstate Glass-Steagall? I will tell you, that the two worst votes that I have made since I’ve been in Congress were, one, the Iraq War, as we were misled and lied to by the Bush Administration; secondly, I did vote to repeal Glass-Steagall, but I’m now on the House bill with Marcy Kaptur [D-Ohio], to reinstate Glass-Steagall, and we need your help to reach out to other Members of Congress, and ask them to join Marcy Kaptur and Walter Jones to reinstate Glass-Steagall.

I will tell you that your voices, your effort, can make a difference. We in this country, here in Washington D.C., we need to hear from the people of America. And these two issues that I just mentioned to you, are very important to “sunshine” in Washington, D.C. And we need all the sunshine that we can get, because too often the government does try to hide from the American people—the taxpayers—the truth.

The truth will set you free. Help us if you can. And thank you for taking a moment to listen to me. Thank you, and have a great conference.
