

Convenient Lies Gored By Styrofoam Icebergs

Al Gore is faking evidence to promote his genocidal global warming hoax, ABC-TV News reported on April 22. The program documented that the famous shot in his Nobel Prize-winning propaganda film about alleged man-induced global arming, “An Inconvenient Truth,” which showed Antarctic ice shelves falling into the ocean, “is a fake.” Visual effects supervisor for the film “The Day After Tomorrow,” Karen Goulekas, says that Gore took the shot from that 2004 fictional global warming movie, which was created on a sound stage using styrofoam “ice,” and scanned into a computer. She said, “Yeah, that’s our shot, and that’s a fully computer generated shot. There is nothing real in there.”
