

LaRouche: Nancy Pelosi Should Be Thrown Out

House Speaker Nancy Pelosi should be thrown out of the leadership of the House of Representatives for her immoral role in the attacks against Rep. Charles Rangel (D-N.Y.), the first African American Congressman to hold the chairmanship of the House Ways and Means Committee, Lyndon LaRouche said Sept. 12.

“Pelosi should be thrown out,” said LaRouche. “Her behavior in the Rangel case is typical of the immorality that she has exhibited as House Speaker. As a result of her policies, Democrats will face massive defeat in the 2008 Congressional elections; she should be thrown out before it gets even worse.”

Representative Rangel has been targetted by the media empire of fascist Rupert Murdoch, and Republicans in Congress, but well-informed sources report that the Republicans couldn't get away with their attacks if it were not for the knowledge that Pelosi and her leadership gang want Rangel either out, or brought into line with Wall Street policies.

The Atlanta Journal-Constitution editorial board joined Pelosi et al., with a lead editorial Sept. 12, entitled, “Rangel Should Step Down Pending Review,” demanding that the New York Congressman be ousted as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. “House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and her leadership should insist that U.S. Rep. Charles Rangel give up the chair of the House Ways and Means Committee ... while colleagues get to the bottom of Rangel's ethics problems,” the signed editorial by Ken Foskett said.

LaRouche retorted that the Journal-Constitution itself should be suspended “pending review” of its ethics.
